

History Connected
Year Two Offerings
2010 – 2011 School Year Seminars & Book Groups

SEMINARS

October 2010

War, Society, State, and Citizenship: Introduction & Orientation

Content: Christopher Capozzola, Massachusetts Institute of Technology
Pedagogy/Teacher Resources: Teachers' Curriculum Institute

November 2010

The American Revolution: Print Culture, Persuasion, and Participation

Content & Pedagogy: American Antiquarian Society Fellows and Staff

December 2010

War and Protest: Examining Responses to Indian Removal and the Mexican American War

Content: Owen Stanwood, Boston College
Pedagogy/Teacher Resources: Diana Grady and Kit Dunlap, Buzzards Bay Writing Project, University of Massachusetts Dartmouth

January 2010

“Touched with Fire:” Examining Wartime Participation of Men and Women in the American Civil War

Content: Nina Silber, Boston University
Pedagogy/Teacher Resources: Addison Gallery of American Art

February 2010

American Imperialism and the Spanish-American War

Content: Ed O'Donnell, College of the Holy Cross
Pedagogy/Teacher Resources: Patricia Fontaine, University of Massachusetts Lowell

February 2010

Presenting History: Technological Applications for Student Presentations

Content & Resources: John Wren, University of Massachusetts Lowell

March 2010

Civil Liberties during Wartime: World War I

Content: Frances Early, Mount Saint Vincent University
Pedagogy/Teacher Resources: Stephanie Greenhut of the National Archives and Records Administration

April 2010

The End of World War II in the Pacific and the Use of the Atomic Bomb

Content: Patrick Maney, Boston College
Pedagogy/Teacher Resources: Patricia Fontaine of the University of Massachusetts Lowell

May 2010

The Korean War II

Content: David Ekbladh, Tufts University
Pedagogy/Teacher Resources: Kevin O'Reilly, Hamilton-Wenham Regional High School

History Book Discussion Study Groups

Led by Professor Robert Farrant, University of Massachusetts Lowell

December: Paul Revere's Ride by David Hackett Fischer

January: This Republic of Suffering: Death and the American Civil War by Drew Gilpin Faust

February: Dark Tide: The Great Boston Molasses Flood of 1919 by Stephen Puleo

March: Double Victory: A Multicultural History of America in World War II by Ronald Takaki

April: Patriots: The Vietnam War Remembered from All Sides by Christian Appy

Books are provided for all participants.